

Permission to Use Student Work

Student Name: Jason Parr

Title of Work: Westworld Fan Site

Course Title / Course #: Front End Web Development

During the course of my studies, I may create student work as part of my academic assessment or course work more generally (“Student Work”). General Assembly Space, Inc. and its affiliates and subsidiaries (“General Assembly”) understand and acknowledge that I own the intellectual property rights in my Student Work and that this consent is not a transfer of ownership. I certify that I am the owner of the copyright to the Student Work identified above, and the Student Work is not subject to any grant or restriction that would prevent its use consistent with this permission. Except as explicitly indicated on the Student Work, all aspects of the Student Work are original to me and have not been copied or adapted from other sources.

By signing below, I hereby give my permission and grant to General Assembly the unlimited, perpetual, irrevocable, royalty-free, worldwide right to: use, reuse, edit, copy, publish, display, reproduce, exhibit, or distribute my Student Work, in whole or in part, solely to promote and advertise General Assembly’s programs and services in any format or medium or for other consistent purposes. I acknowledge and agree that my Student Work may be used with or without identifying me by name, including my first name or first name and last initial.

I hereby release General Assembly from all claims and liability caused by or otherwise arising from General Assembly’s use of my Student Work, and for any violation of any personal or proprietary right that I may have in connection with such use. I understand that any promotional or related advertising materials shall remain the property of General Assembly. I hereby waive (i) any right to inspect or approve the use of my Student Work by General Assembly and any promotional or related advertising materials; and (ii) all moral rights including, but not limited to, the right of attribution.

I certify that I am over 18 years of age and I have read and fully understand the terms of this Permission to Use Student Work.

Signature of student:

Jason Parr

Address/contact information:

9609 NE 195th Circle #L4
Bothell, WA., 98011

Date:

January 11, 2021